Title: July 27, 2020 Compliance Dates – related to the Reassigned Numbers Database Order

Please note that beginning July 27, 2020, voice service providers must maintain records of the most recent date each number was permanently disconnected and must age telephone numbers for at least 45 days after disconnection and before reassignment.

Public Notice, DA 20-706, released July 2, also noted that a future date will be announced by the Commission for the new rule requiring voice service providers to send information to the Reassigned Numbers Database once the database is established. The Public Notice can be found at <https://docs.fcc.gov/public/attachments/DA-20-706A1.pdf>

The upcoming August 3, 2020 NRUF submission deadline is based on service provider inventory as of June 30, 2020, and is not affected by the July 27, 2020 compliance date as it relates to the 45 day minimum aging period.
